

R E A D I N G
E X T E N S I O N
B O A R D

These choices are available to you when you are done with your class assignments. Please let your teacher know which task you have selected to work on during your time. Additionally, please report your accomplishments to your teacher at the end of class.

Be able to respond to the following: I am proud of . . .

Post Card Pal Pretend you are a character in the book/story. Write a postcard to yourself describing what happened in the story. *Use the activity guide available.	Picture Window Draw a picture that represents something from the book or story. Write a description about the picture. *Use the activity guide available.	Creative Catalog Select “items” from the story to try to sell. Draw a picture and write a description. *Use the activity guide available.
Character Trading Card Complete the activity guide.	Story Tree Complete the story tree activity guide.	BME Brochure Beginning Middle End *Use the activity guide available.
Thinking Hats Complete the Thinking Hats reflective activity.	Words That Work Select at least 10 words from the Words That Work chart. Explain why a word supports the character’s traits.	Summary Chart/Picture Summarize the story elements. *Use the activity guide provided.
Reading to Learn Select a nonfiction book to read. *Use the activity guide provided. *If you have a particular interest, please let your teacher know!	ABC Reflection Chart Complete the chart.	Literature Circle *You may join others to participate in your own literature circle activities. Get a group together (no more than 4) and let’s talk!

